Excelerate's Story

Physicians and supply chain- working together. Excelerate is a provider-led, physician-engaged sourcing model that uses evidence-based clinical outcomes to facilitate product decision making.

We deliver solutions to our members with:

- Best-in-class contracts driving member value and enabling clinical alignment
- Supply utilization guidelines designed to decrease clinical utilization
- Peer-to-peer physician engagement that fosters clinical alignment and enables local governance

Physician and clinician engagement remains a focal point and pillar within the strategy of Excelerate. Incorporating an environment where clinical input is embedded into our operations has provided an environment where our contract portfolio adds significant value to our membership by integrating relevant data, evidence and innovation.

On average our members achieve greater than 20% savings while upholding high-levels of clinical care- always putting patients first.

Excelerate's commitment

Commitment to quality. With revised and aggressive reimbursement methods and increased outcomes pressures, Excelerate is committed to strengthening quality-focused, like-minded health care organizations of all sizes from the inside out. It begins with the value equation of quality over cost.

We help health care organizations move toward achieving meaningful and sustainable evidence-based results, where every level of organizational engagement leads to total cost change management.
